Colombia is spread over five natural regions, each with certain characteristics that make them unique from any other region. These regions are exemplified by the palm-fringed beaches that meet the sound of the Caribbean Sea, the vast green lands of the Andean region where the famous frothy aromatic coffee is harvested under the rolling hills of the mountains. To the west you can see the coastline of the Pacific Ocean gliding over the huge, silent rivers of the Amazon rainforest.

With all this on offer and the security that Colombia offers today,, visiting this beautiful country is a dream for distinguished travellers who long to discover one of South America's most beautiful secrets with Metropolitan Touring Colombia Virtuoso DMC.

We share with you information that will be of great interest to you METROPOLITAN TOURING COLOMBIA PRESENTATION, ITINERARIES SUGGESTED, ADVENTURE AND NATURE, RECOMMENDATIONS, CHIRIBIQUE

Let us highlight the magnificence of a country waiting to be explored. From the vibrant cities of Bogota and Medellin; the charm and beauty of a Colonial city on the Caribbean coast; Cartagena, a world heritage site; to the salsa roots of Cali, this is just a taste of the flavour and experiences that this enchanting country and its proud people have to offer.

Sierra de la Macarena is located at the western end of the mountainous Guiana Shield and the Colombian Orinoco. This shield separates the Amazon and Orinoco river basins. All the rivers on its northern side feed the mighty Orinoco River, forming the Orinoco region.

El Otro Yucatan is a boutique DMC offering services in the Yucatan Peninsula, including Mexico City, Chiapas, Tabasco, Campeche y Oaxaca, and occasionally Guatemala and Belize with the Slow Travel philosophy.

We work for those clients who are not looking for a simple trip, but for exclusive and enriching experiences.

Our passion for travel has brought us to this wonderful Yucatan Peninsula. Our extensive experience, both in outbound and inbound, has led us to prepare this project.

We take great care to personally get to know the accommodation, the vehicles, the drivers, the guides. We are here to supervise the small details that make a trip an unforgettable experience.

We look for and explore the lesser known places, ruins that are not on the cruisers' path, such as cenotes with difficult access, lesser known Haciendas, but with all their personality, colonial towns and cities, with markets, little churches, small museums?

On your return, you will be our best letter of introduction.

Let us show you the other Yucatan through our eyes.

DestinAsia Journeys, founded by Jaswant Singh in Delhi, and has been active in the incoming tourism segment, enjoying every year a dynamic growth in terms of arriving passengers, revenue and market share.

The demand of most main tour – operators for extending the successful co – operation in additional destinations, has lead DestinAsia Journeys, to the expansion of its operations to additional India sub-continent, such as Nepal, Bhutan and Tibet, through a network of own offices.

Capitalizing the growth deriving from the new destinations, as well as the growth of many new source markets, the company's boost has positioned it to one of the most extended and geographically diversified Indian sub-continent incoming networks and Destination Management Companies.

The vision of the founder for valued and competitive services, development through long term partnerships and investment in technology and infrastructures, as well as the commitment to quality without compromises, remain intact and continue to lead the company's further steps.

India is a vast South Asian country with diverse terrain – from Himalayan peaks to Indian Ocean coastline – and history reaching back 5 millennia. In the north, Mughal Empire landmarks include Delhi's Red Fort complex, massive Jama Masjid mosque and Agra's iconic Taj Mahal mausoleum. Pilgrims bathe in the Ganges in Varanasi, and Rishikesh is a yoga center and base for Himalayan trekking.

Known to be the land of epics and legends, two of the world's greatest epics find their birth in Indian settings – the Ramayana, depicting the exploits of lord Ram, and the Mahabharata detailing the war between Kauravas and Pandavas, both descendants of King Bharat. Ramayana traces lord Ram's journey from exile to the rescue of his wife Sita from the demonic clutches of Ravana with the help of his simian companions. Singing the virtues of Dharma(duty), the Gita, one of the most priced scriptures in Indian Mythology, is the advice given by Shri Krishna to the grief laden Arjun, who is terrified at the thought of killing his kin, on the battle ground.

Mahatma Gandhi revived these virtues again, breathing new life in them, during India's freedom struggle against British Colonialism. An ardent believer in communal harmony, he dreamt of a land where all religions would be the threads to form a rich social fabric.

Nepal, a circumscribed strip of land with a remarkable variety of climates and natural environments, thanks to territories ranging from the Ganges plain to the Himalayan mountain range, is a state rich in history and culture: the variety of ethnic differences that create a varied panorama of customs and traditions, the ancient cities sprinkled with fascinating Hindu temples, the fascinating Buddhist monasteries and the breathtaking views of the stupendous mountain scenery of the Himalayan world. Its capital, Kathmandu, located at about 1,350 m above sea level and considered for a long time the Florence of Asia, is a mixture of progressive modernization and an enchanting historic center: you will love wandering through its maze of streets to discover the architectural treasures, beautiful squares and magnificent temples.

Bhutan is no ordinary place. It is a Himalayan kingdom with a reputation for mystery and magic, where a traditional Buddhist culture carefully embraces global developments.

Bhutan, officially the Kingdom of Bhutan, is a landlocked country in South Asia at the eastern end of the Himalayas. It is bordered to the north by China and to the south, east and west by India. To the west, it is separated from Nepal by the Indian state of Sikkim, while farther south it is separated from Bangladesh by the Indian states of Assam and West Bengal. Bhutan's capital and largest city is Thimphu.

Bhutan's landscape ranges from subtropical plains in the south to the sub-alpine Himalayan heights in the north, where some peaks exceed 7,000 metres (23,000 ft). Bhutan's state religion is Vajrayana Buddhism and the population, as of 2015 estimated as 770 thousand people, is predominantly Buddhist. Hinduism is the second-largest religion.

Bali Island Of The Gods Even today, there is magic about Bali.

The longer one stays on the island, the more one is impressed by the many exquisite sights and the scores of talented and charming people one encounters. All the tourist hype aside, Bali truly is exceptional. The island of Bali indeed presents a modern paradox – an ancient, traditional society that is still incredibly alive and vital.

Bali is extraordinarily blessed by nature. Lying within a narrow band of the tropics where the wet and dry seasons fall roughly into balance – providing both adequate rainfall and long periods of sunshine – the island's soils, topography and water resources are all remarkably well suited to human habitation. As a result, Bali has been civilized since very early times.

This is also the only island in inner Indonesia that has enjoyed centuries of more or less uninterrupted cultural continuity. While other traditional states in the region suffered major disruptions due to Islamization and Dutch colonization, Bali was isolated, left to go her own way. As a result, this is the only area of Indonesia that remains "Hindu today – retaining elements of the great fusion of indigenous and Indian cultures which took place over a thousand years ago.

Bali is a truly unique destination.

We are specialized in creative Incentive travel, conferences, tailor-made trips for individuals and groups, soft adventure trips. We work exclusively in the B to B market with professionals of the tourism sector. Contact with local people is at the core of our philosophy of travel.
